

Raymond Algueseva of Manistee, born December 1, 1925, passed away Friday morning February 15, 2013 in Columbus, Ohio.

He is survived by his wife Lois Algueseva, daughters Margo (Rob) Eberts and Abigail Algueseva, and four grandchildren: Cpt. Robert Thomas Eberts IV, Adaline (Brett) Bohr, Emily (Brandon) Shipman, and Liam Ray Fimmen. Also surviving are his brother Robert Algueseva and family.

Ray was a WWII Veteran serving in the Pacific with the Army Air Corps. Upon return he attended the University of Michigan. Ray was business owner, entrepreneur, and art aficionado. He and his wife Lois owned and operated the River Street Gallery in Manistee for the last 10 years.

Funeral services will be held at Guardian Angels Catholic Church, 371 Fifth St. in Manistee on Tuesday, Feb. 19 at 11 a.m. (visitation from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.). A Military burial will be announced at a later date.

The family requests in lieu of flowers, that donations be made to Heifer International.