

John Anthony Joseph Bradley, 47, Zimmerman, MN, died Friday, September 3rd at his home near Zimmerman.

John was born at Laurium, Michigan on November 21, 1962, son of John Joseph and Patricia Marie (Witkowski) Bradley. Growing up John's dad served with the US Air Force, so the family moved frequently. John attended Bellevue West High School at Bellevue, Nebraska his freshman and sophomore years and Manistee Catholic Central High School in Manistee, Michigan his junior and senior years, graduating from there in 1981. He attended Northwood University in Midland, Michigan and graduated with a double major in General Business and Marketing & Advertising. He moved to Wichita, Kansas, where he worked for the Cargill Company loading freight cars, while attending Wichita State University. It was at Wichita, John met Karen Mohr and they were married on September 28, 1996 at Wichita. He worked for Cargill for about three years and then with Industrial Fumigant Company or IFC for seven years, before beginning with Home Depot in Wichita, where he worked his way up to a management position in the five years he was with them. He began working with Office Depot four years ago and was transferred to Minnesota three years ago, where he was Receiving Manager with the Midwest Region Warehouse in Plymouth, MN.

John worked officiating for basketball and college softball, starting when he was in college. He enjoyed helping with his daughter, Saij's, softball team, the Zimmerman Thunder. Most importantly and above all, John loved being with his family. He also enjoyed camping.

John is survived by his wife: Karen Mohr-Bradley of Zimmerman; his daughters: Laik and Saij, both at home; his parents: John and Pat Bradley of Manistee, Michigan; and his sister: Cathleen Bradley of Bellevue, Nebraska.
