

Jack Willis Fields, age 81 of Free Soil, passed away on Monday April 13, 2015 at his home.

He was born on October 5, 1933 in Benton Harbor, MI the son of the late Harry Fields and Vivian (Mock) Brown and his step-father Richard Brown.

He was a veteran of the United States Army, serving in Germany. Jack married the love of his life, Joy Revolt on April 30, 1960 at Guardian Angels Catholic Church in Manistee and would have celebrated 55 years this April 30th.

Jack had been employed at Taber Construction, Century Boat Company, & Ex-Cell-O Corporation. During his career as a carpenter he built over 38 homes and garages, etc. He enjoyed hunting and fishing. Jack was a member of Crossroads Church in Scottville.

Survivors include his wife, Joy Fields of Free Soil; two brothers-in-law, Jess (Sylvia) Revolt of Manistee and Jerome Revolt of North Carolina. Nieces and nephews also survive.

He was also preceded in death by two brothers Richard and Harry, and his grandparents.

Memorial Services will be announced at a later date.

Please visit Jack's personal page of memories at www.oakgrovefh.com to share a photo or story. The family has entrusted the Oak Grove Funeral Home & Cremation Center with funeral arrangements.