

David Andrew Plouhar, age 76 of Manistee, died unexpectedly December 5, 2012 at his home.

He was born June 24, 1936 in Muskegon the son of the late Andrew E. and Suzanne V. (Kryschewski) Plouhar. He graduated from Muskegon Catholic High School with the Class of 1954. He served in the US Air Force and was stationed in Germany.

David's most recent employment was with Nabco in Kaleva. He was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Manistee.

He was a true believer of "Living Green" and enjoyed fishing, especially on the Manistee piers and Man-made Lake, and also loved a good smelt run. He enjoyed gardening of various fruits and vegetables. He also was an avid recycler and would fix whatever he could and donate it to those in need.

He is survived by 3 sisters, Louise (Glenn) Biggs of St. Ignatius, Montana, Mary Jane Duguay of Muskegon, MI and Lorraine (Raymond) Gallick of Anaconda, Montana; his brother, Erwin James Plouhar of St. Louis, MI; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was also preceded in death by his brother and sister, Daniel Edward and Florence.

Cremation has taken place and a memorial service and luncheon will be held in the spring.

Memorial contributions in David's name may be directed to St. Joseph Catholic Church in Manistee or Our Lady of Grace in Muskegon.

Please visit his personal book of memories page at www.oakgrovefh.com to share a story or photo.

The family has entrusted funeral arrangements to Oak Grove Funeral Home & Cremation Center.