

Dolores Anastasia Rollo "Emma", 77, of Brethren and Plymouth, went to be with the Lord on Wednesday, June 21, 2012, on the first day of summer in which the sky was graced with a brilliant rainbow. She was born July 19, 1934, in Detroit, the daughter of Albert Joseph and Harriet Cecilia (Wrzesinski) Owsiany. She suffered for over a decade with rheumatoid arthritis and would say "what can't be mended, can be endured."

Dolores attended Transfiguration Catholic Grade School. After serving many hot fudge sundaes at Sander's Ice Cream Shop to William "Bill" Joseph Rollo, they were married on September 15, 1956.

Dolores was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. Before their children were born, Dolores worked for Detroit Bank and Trust. Later, she worked for Scott Publications. Dolores enjoyed going fishing with her husband, walking along the sandy shores of Lake Michigan, cooking for her grandkids, reading, rye bread, and receiving the paper from her dog Kipper. Dolores was a extraordinary and loving grandmother who cared for Julia Rose, Maria Grace and Joseph William Scannell. She encouraged the kids and asked how each and every day of their lives went. JMJ are the light of her life that continues to shine! Her favorite quote was "Shoot for the moon, for even if you fall short you will be a star!"

Dolores is survived by: two children, John Philip Rollo and Judith (Jeffrey) Scannell; three grandchildren, Julia Rose Scannell, Marie Grace Scannell, and Joseph William Scannell; and her sister Elaine (Richard) Maier. In good ol' days, Elaine and Dolores had a ball cooking together and entertaining at family events and helped little old ladies when they need a ride to the store.

Dolores was preceded in death by her husband, William "Bill" Joseph Rollo and baby daughter Karen Sue. After her husband died she would recite, "Fear knocked at my door, faith answered and no one was there."
