

Sue A. Soller age 66, of Freesoil, Michigan, died Sunday afternoon, March 23, 2014 at the Ludington Woods Assisted Living Home, unexpectedly.

She was born September 22, 1947 in Manistee, Michigan and was the daughter of the late Edward and Beatrice (Bartoszek) Dauginis. Sue was a graduate of Freesoil High School with the Class of 1965. Sue then attended the Muskegon School of Business, where she received her Associates Degree in 1967. She married Leonard C. Soller on July 3, 1971 in Manistee, Michigan. He preceded her in death on July 5, 2000. Most of her life, Sue was employed with Security National Bank of Manistee. She was a member of the Catholic Community of Manistee (Guardian Angel Catholic Church).

Sue is survived by two sisters and brothers-in-law, Jacqueline and Michael Kovach of Freesoil, MI, and Rosalie and Darek DiLaura of Paw Paw, MI, her niece Jamie (Brian) Cribbet of Calabash, NC, three nephews, Ryan (Ann) DiLaura of Kalamazoo, MI, Erik Kovach of Freesoil, MI, and Kevin (Andrea) Kovach of Manistee, MI, her great nieces and nephews, Lydia and Abby DiLaura, Taylor Cribbet, Paris Reeser, Aspen and Emmery Kovach.

Graveside Services will be held at the Maple Grove Cemetery in Freesoil, Michigan with Reverend Richard Bartoszek officiating.

Those wishing to remember Sue are asked to consider a gift in her name to Harbor Hospice. The Herbert Funeral Home of Manistee is in charge of funeral arrangements.