Mary Ann will be best remembered by the love she gave to everyone through her cooking & baking. She loved to tend to her many gardens and wouldn't hesitate to take anyone on a tour of them. She also enjoyed knitting and crocheting for any one or any animal in need. She also had a wonderful sense of humor and was the great jokester.

She is survived by her twin sister Rose Marie Showalter; two daughters Polly Ann Zuchowski of West Virginia, and Holly Ellis and son-in-law Luke of Caledonia, Michigan, and grandchildren Christine, Isabella, & Anna Ellis; and by a son Daniel Zuchowski of Colorado, and grandchildren Justin, Natasha, & Zachary Zuchowski.
