

Jeffrey Michael Meduna, age 64, passed away on August 27, 2022 in Portland, Oregon.

He was born on January 9, 1958 in Manistee, Michigan and is the son of the late Joseph and Alice Meduna.

He is survived by his two sons, Greg (Heather) Harris and Chris (Lauren) Harris. Also surviving are his brother Jon (Connie) Meduna; his sisters Mary Ann (Mark) Krusniak, Pat (Greg) Harris, Nancy (Corey) Moore and Kellie Tate; three grandchildren: Raylan, Sawyer and Madison; one uncle Fred (Kathy) Meduna; and two aunts Patricia Keck and Donna Meduna. Numerous nieces and nephews also survive.

He was preceded in death by his parents Joseph and Alice Meduna, his son Michael and his former wife Bonnita Lou Thompson.

Everyone that knew Jeff will remember him for his great smile and charming personality. He loved his family and enjoyed spending time with his three young grandchildren. Jeff was an avid Michigan fan. He loved his Wolverines! He loved watching all Michigan sports, including the Tigers and Lions. He also enjoyed golfing. He was a member of the Army National Guard for four years.

Jeff worked for Lamb Weston in Oregon and Roche Pharmaceuticals in Arizona. He also held various other positions where he served as a supervisor.

Cremation has taken place and he will be buried next to his son, Michael Jeffrey in Irrigon, Oregon at the Desert Lawn Memorial Cemetery.

A celebration of Jeff's life will take place with his family at a later date.
