

Mark John Steinberg "Pops", age 71, passed away peacefully while camping on July 6, 2023. Mark was born on Nov 16, 1951 to Ted and Evelyn (Toczynski) Steinberg in Manistee, MI.

In 1974 he married Cheryl Fauble and together they were blessed with 2 beautiful girls and 43 wonderful years of marriage before Cheryl's death in 2017. Mark married Ann Wolf in January of 2019 and they were fortunate to be able to spend 5 amazing years together and with her family. Mark retired in 2011, after working 35 years at the former Cobb Power Plant. While Mark spent much time working to support his family, his true passions lie with his love for the community and the environment. Mark loved to find an excuse to go outside. He was an avid runner, cyclist, hunter, fisherman and conservationist. Mark recycled, replanted trees, kept a meticulous compost pile and did everything he could to take care of the earth. Mark earned his nickname "Pops" when he began supporting his daughters for Reeths Puffer athletic teams. He would fall in love with the RP Cross Country program and could be found every fall either coaching or working meets for Rocket runners over the past 30 years. Pops distinctively loud cheers will continue to echo through the woods for years as coaches and runners remember his impact. Pops was a devout member of Prince of Peace Catholic Church and could be found most Sundays ushering his fellow parishioners. He spent every free moment he had with his grandchildren, traveling to wherever they were so that they would hear his voice and know that he was there. He loved warm weather and if he was able, you would find him most afternoons napping in either the Florida or Michigan sun after enjoying an IPA. Pops was in excellent health and ran or worked out nearly every day until his death. Pops was fun, agreeable, kind, happy, loving, supportive and just about any other adjective you could find to describe someone who would mean so much and be loved by so many people.

Mark is survived by his wife, Ann (Wolfe); children, Erika (Pat) Mitchell and Lindsay (Alex) Keefe; grandchildren, Mira, Luna, Darcy, Deacon and Dwyer; sisters, Jane, Joan (Petrowski); brother, John; mother-in-law, Marion Fauble; numerous nieces and nephews; and tremendous family and friends. He was preceded in death by his father, Ted; mother, Evelyn (Toczynski); father-in-law Gordon Fauble and sister Marilyn (Aldrich). A mass will take place at 11:00AM on Friday, July 14th, 2023 at Prince of Peace Catholic Church 1110 Dykstra Rd. Immediately following the mass there will be a celebration lunch with all of the things that Pops loved at his daughter's home at 570 Glenwood Ave. Pops will be terribly missed by everyone who knew him, please hug the people whom you love today in his memory. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating your time or money to Mark's greatest passion, youth and high school sports. Any donations made at the lunch will go directly to high school athletics.
