

Lorraine Susan Bachinski, age 90, passed away peacefully surrounded by family at home. Mom fought a long hard battle for many years with Alzheimer's and most recently with COVID Pneumonia.

Lorraine was born in Manistee, Michigan to Leo and Elizabeth (Janiszewski) Adamski. She attended St Joseph Catholic High School. Lorraine worked as a housekeeper for the Lawrence Larson family until her marriage to Charles David Bachinski on October 11, 1952, when they began their family of six children. She was married for thirty-four years until his death in 1987. She was an active member of St Joseph Catholic Church (Divine Mercy).

Lorraine enjoyed cooking and baking, was an excellent garage/yard sale enthusiast, and collecting sunflower items. She also loved to dance with her sisters. Lorraine loved spending time with her grandchildren and attending all their sporting events and activities. She loved her grand bird Dallas and grand dog Gizmo. Lorraine was an incredible cook, especially Polish food, paczkis and apple squares.

Lorraine is survived by her six children: Thomas (Peggy) Bachinski, Susan Bachinski, Robert Bachinski, Phillip (Paul Levandowski) Bachinski, Patrick Bachinski, and Julie Bachinski. Also survived by her grandchildren: Nicholas (Frankie) Bachinski, Timothy Bachinski, Colin (Molly) Bachinski, and Austin (Emily) Bachinski. Lorraine is survived by her sisters Carole Bowling of Bear Lake and Lois Shea of Scotch Plains, New Jersey.

Lorraine was preceded in death by her parents Leo and Elizabeth Adamski, daughter-in-law Sandra (Faubert) Bachinski, and David and Colleen (Jacobs) Adamski; her sisters Grace (James) Kerry, Marilyn Gillman, and Barbara (Jack) Picardat.

Cremation has taken place, and a private family graveside service will be held at a later date.

The family has entrusted funeral arrangements to Herbert Funeral Home of Manistee, Michigan.
