

Jill K. Rozmarek, 49 of Sheboygan, passed away on Thursday, August 8, 2024, with her family by her side, at St. Vincent Hospital in Green Bay. She was born on October 15, 1974, in Manistee, MI to Henry and Janet (Kudich) Rozmarek. Jill graduated from Manistee High School and then went on to receive her bachelor's degree in graphic design from Western Michigan University.

On November 2, 2002, she was united in marriage to Roque Corpuz in Grand Rapids, MI.

Jill had an artistic flare. She was good with colors and patterns; home decorating was easy for her. Friends were always asking her advice on different things they could do in their homes. Jill was also an amazing baker. She enjoyed thrifting, organizing, cleaning and gardening. She loved being outside in her garden, caring for her flowers and vegetables. Her green thumb produced many lemons, avocados and tomatoes to name a few.

Jill's passion was being a mom to her daughter Ivy. She was always there to support Ivy in all her endeavors, like driving the golf cart for her, becoming good at putt-putt, and cheering her on as she raced around the track and field events. Jill loved all the time spent with her family, creating many cherished memories.

Jill is survived by her husband Roque Corpuz, daughter Ivy Corpuz, parents Henry and Janet Rozmarek, and her brother Brett Rozmarek. She is further survived by aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, in-laws and friends. She was preceded in death by her grandparents; Henry and Violet Rozmarek and Rudolph and Ruth Kudich, uncle Lee LeFleur and aunt Patricia Rozmarek.

A celebration of Jill's life will be held on Saturday, August 17, 2024, from 1:00 PM until 4:00 PM at Reinbold-Novak Funeral Home, 1535 S. 12th St. Sheboygan.
